

Global Investment and Finance Authority Frederick L.A. Grauer Joins PredictWallStreet™ Advisory Team

Frederick Grauer former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Barclays Global Investors Brings Deep Expertise to PredictWallStreet's Global Online Stock Prediction Community

Capitola, California (PRWEB) September 25, 2013 -- Today PredictWallStreet announced that Dr. Frederick Grauer has joined the PredictWallStreet™ advisory team as a senior advisor. Aggregate predictions from PredictWallStreet's online community of thousands of traders and investors are processed through proprietary collective intelligence algorithms to produce daily forecasts of stock and index movements.

Formerly the leader of one of the largest investment firms in the world and an acknowledged innovator in market behavior, Dr. Grauer is presently an investor in entrepreneurial ventures and an advisor to pension and investment funds. He brings an established track record of vetting strategic alternatives and distinguishing between hard facts and wishful thinking.

When asked why he was drawn to PredictWallStreet, Dr. Grauer explained that, "markets price expectations. But what are those expectations? PredictWallStreet reveals investor expectations and helps investors gauge both surprise and superiority. Had Keynes had PWS he would have won his fictional newspaper beauty contest!"

"We're very excited that Dr. Grauer has chosen to join the PredictWallStreet advisory team and add his authority to our expanding cadre of experts," said Craig Kaplan, Ph.D., Founder and CEO of PredictWallStreet. "Dr. Grauer's ongoing association with the global investment community as well as academia and entrepreneurial ventures ensures that PredictWallStreet has an authoritative understanding of markets and strong relationships within the industry."

"PredictWallStreet's corporate board is actively recruiting other authorities with the stature of Dr. Grauer for the advisory team," added Kaplan. "The involvement of respected and reputable advisors will advance and accelerate our global growth strategy. Over the next few weeks there will be more announcements of public figures accepting advisory roles."

About Frederick L.A. Grauer, Ph.D.
